

2024 CCAR Candidate Interview Questions- General Election

1. Why are you running for this office and what qualifies you to hold it?
2. How should our community respond to homelessness? How do you feel about the City of Vancouver's response?
3. How do we improve public safety in our community? What is your threshold for law enforcement involvement?
4. If elected, and within the context of your office, how would you improve housing affordability and supply for all housing types, including single family homes?
5. What is your professional experience (public/private), how does your experience inform your beliefs, and how will this help you represent the people of Clark County?
6. Given the polarization of American politics, how will you work with citizens, stakeholders, staff, and fellow policy makers to accomplish policy goals? How would you decrease polarization in politics?
7. How much has your campaign raised and what types of marketing, volunteering, and promotion encompass your campaign?
8. What is your perspective on taxation? How do we fund public services while creating a fertile business environment to attract new businesses and residents?
9. How would you approach short term rentals (Airbnb, etc.), what additional regulation would you prescribe, if any?
10. What are your thoughts on the I-5 Interstate Bridge Replacement (IBR)?
11. What are your thoughts on the Growth Management Act?
12. Do you support the rights and employment of qualified independent contractors, regardless of industry? If elected, how would you support these business owners?
13. Give us an example of a moment of failure in your life or career, how did you recover and what did you learn from it?